THE MINISTER OF CULTURE (SHRIMATI AMBIKA SONI): (a) Mining operations have degraded this area.

(b) Yes, Sir.

(c) The Government of Rajasthan was requested to initiate necessary action to stop mining operation in the area and to restrict and regulate activities that are likely to endanger the heritage remains. The major steps taken by the Government of Rajasthan, as informed by them, are:

1. Notices for premature termination of working major and minor leases have been issued.
2. No new mining leases have been sanctioned after June, 2004.
3. Government land measuring over 5200 hectares in 76 villages in Deeg and Kaman Tehsils has been transferred to the Forest Department for afforestation.
4. The Department of Art and Culture has protected 4 important sites/monuments under the State law.
5. "Brij Bhoomi Tourism Circuit" is being developed.

The Archaeological Survey of India has also started the process of considering 8 important sites/monuments on the Chaurasi Kos Parikrama Marg for protection as of national importance.
